

Promissory Note

I, the undersigned, promise to pay to Terence Moore, dba Triskelon, an opening deposit today (enclosed) in the amount of $_____, plus _____ monthly payments. Monthly payments are each in the amount of $_____, to be mailed on the _____ day of the month starting approximately 30 days from today's date.

These payments represent a quid pro quo exchange for products and services described in the Triskelon proposal dated _____, attached. I understand that all products and services described in this proposal are to be completely delivered within _____ days of today's date.

If I am not fully satisfied with all products and services after delivery, I understand that I may invoke the Triskelon $100 guarantee within seven days of notification that delivery is complete, to be deducted from my final payment(s) described above. Guarantee applies to all products and services except search engine optimization services, which are provided, if any, expressly without guarantee. I understand that no other remedies apply.

I understand that the total of payments described above is higher than the total on the attached proposal because of interest, to be applied at the rate of 15% per annum.

I agree to maintain web hosting service with Triskelon (as reflected in the attached proposal) for my primary domain name for at least the term of this agreement, or _____ months.
